

Certificate of Qualification in Facial Theory

Revised September 7, 2022

Who can register?

You can register to challenge the BeautyCouncil Certificate of Qualification in Facial Theory Exam, provided you have completed 500 school hours or 1,200 work experience hours in the trade of Esthetics.

The exam is thorough and vigorous.

We encourage all registrants to earn a diploma from a PTIB accredited cosmetology school prior to taking the exam. All other registrants are welcome to challenge the exam, provided you have completed school and work hours above. By registering online to take the exam, you are attesting to having completed these hours. You will upload your paperwork (or diploma) confirming your hours of schooling or experience after you register.

The reference textbook is Milady Standard Foundations (12E) and Milady Standard Foundations.

Exam cost (price includes GST)

- $200 for BeautyCouncil Members
- $300 for non-members

Registrants who do not pass the exam may apply to retake failed portion(s) of the exam (theory, practical, or both) within 2 years (no limit on the number of retakes). Retakes are $100 (includes GST). A pass requires a score of 70% or higher.

The exam takes place in a single day as outlined in the exam date registration page. There are two parts to the exam and both are at the venue listed in your confirmation email:

Theory - This is a 95 question, 1 hour multiple choice exam at the location listed in your registration email. You must score a minimum of 70% to pass this exam.

Practical - This is an in-person exam at a location listed on your registration email. You perform work on your model according to the exam outline below. This exam usually requires approximately 2 hours to complete. An examiner will oversee your work and score your work as you complete it. You must score a minimum of 70% to pass this exam.

Steps to earn your Certificate of Qualification in Esthetics:

1. Go to Certifications / Certificates of Qualification at www.beautycouncil.ca. Click “Tap here to see the exam schedule”. Choose your desired exam date. If no dates are available, do not call the office. All available dates are posted on this calendar. We post new exams regularly.
2. Submit your complete and accurate details, and your payment. You will receive a confirmation email with location and venue details.
3. Prepare your documents to submit to us. A clear, well-lit photo taken with a smart phone will work. You will receive a link in a confirmation email where you may submit the images to us.
4. Attend the exam as detailed in your confirmation email.

You will be notified of pass/fail via email, within 2-4 weeks. If you pass the exam, you will receive a digital certificate and a hardcopy certificate.

If you do not attend your scheduled exam, or arrive more than 15 minutes late, your exam fee will be forfeited. Cancellations must be given 72 hours in advance by advising us at info@beautycouncil.ca

Attending the Exam

Registrants will wear clean, professional attire (uniforms are preferred) and wear no nail enhancements or coloured nail polish.

Registrants will turn off cell phones and devices and refrain from talking during the exam unless prompted by the examiner.

Only registrants and models will be permitted to stay in the exam area. Models must not be beauty school students, beauty professionals, or be working or have experience in the beauty industry.

- You and your model must arrive on time. Registrants who arrive more than 15 minutes late will not be admitted and will be required to reschedule for a later date.
- Present your valid government-issued Canadian photo ID, and your model's photo ID. The name on the ID will appear on your certificate.
- Submit your model waiver form.

Please ensure you have everything on the equipment checklist provided. There will be a short lunch break. Please pack a lunch.
